

From Beech Grove-born author

M.A. Senft

Her latest Novel

THE UNSEEN PLAYER

"A gripping ghost tale with an enthralling story line that will keep you guessing until the very end."

A heartwarming story about a man who, as a boy, was taken to an orphanage at age five when his father failed to return home on Christmas Eve. Decades later, as an older gentleman, he begins having strange visions and ghostly encounters after moving onto his new property. It is only then that he learns the true story of why his father abandoned him. Aided by a phantom entity, he learns the truth of his heritage and the events that took place the night his father disappeared.

Along the way, he will solve a half-century old crime and free a restless soul. More significantly, he will make an immense discovery that will change his life and the lives of a community—forever.

In this exciting and heartfelt tale, Clint Reeves learns that deceased souls can indeed communicate from beyond. And that even after the worst of times, life is full of surprises and wonder.

SPECIAL OFFER FOR SOUTHSIDE TIMES READERS!

ORDER DIRECTLY FROM M.A. SENFT'S WEBSITE

www.masenft.com/shop

Choose The Unseen Player, add it to your cart and enter the code SST24 during checkout to receive FREE SHIPPING.

CHOOSE M.A.'s 2-book Combo Pkg:

The Unseen Player + Shadows of December: Illusions of Time and enter the code SST25 during checkout to receive an additional $3.00 OFF the already discounted price!

Born in Beech Grove, Indiana, MA was one of five siblings. Today, MA enjoys spending quiet time with her husband on their acreage south of Indianapolis.

"She is an amazing new author whose books will capture your imagination..."